

The Welcome Baby Bassinet Gift Basket for baby boy became my life saver!

When my best friend gave birth two weeks before her scheduled delivery date, I panicked because I still didn't have a new born baby gift! Here I was, the designated principal godmother-to-be, missing all the fun because I was still searching for creative baby gifts. Initially, I wanted to send flowers but apparently, pollen can be harmful to newborns. I wanted something that had a personal touch and that would be useful for a mom who just came out of the delivery room. During my own pregnancy, I remembered receiving handmade baby gifts as part of the baby shower gifts thoughtfully given by my family and friends. Now that it's my turn to think of baby gift ideas, balloons and flowers simply won't cut it for me.

I did not have enough time to search for the right baby boy gifts. Online, I figured, I could cover much ground, get the best prices and have enough products to choose from. First, the presentation is always very important. I knew that I wanted a bassinet to encase the gifts for baby boy. I like this product a lot because the white wicker bassinet will make any room look more rustic and homey. Considering the intricacies of weaving a wicker basket, I thought it would be expensive. I was elated to find out that the entire gift basket was very affordable. When I first saw it, I couldn't believe how luxurious it looked. It was like I personally selected the goodies. I was so proud of its unique and creative appeal. Initially, I was concerned about product quality since we can't really touch products when we buy them online. When my friend finally got to open the present, she found the items to be very durable. We were truly satisfied with the product.

Apart from the bassinet, the gift set had essentials for infant care like baby shampoo, lotion, flannel blanket and more. My favorites were the keepsake boxes for Baby's first haircut and a separate one for the tooth. I wish someone sent me those too! For mommy, there was a baby photo album and a booklet to read. My friend was so happy with my present because the items can last and serve as memorabilia until her baby grows up. It's complete and convenient. I saved up on gas and got a good product for the baby. Delivery gifts are the best for a working mom like me. Through online shopping I was able to give a thoughtful present despite my hectic schedule.

What to look for when Buying a Baby Bassinet Gift Basket for baby Boy

- It should look personalized. Everyone appreciates a gift that was carefully chosen for them. You don't want a gift that looks so generic and that everyone has. The Baby Bassinet Gift set looks and feels customized.
- The makers of the Baby Bassinet Gift Basket for baby boy, stand by their product. You can look for good quality products by checking reviews and comments given by other buyers. Company ratings will also give you a clue on how credible the manufacturers are

- Buy a product that lasts. Remember that these are very precious and exciting times for the new mom. Gifts that will help preserve these memories will be appreciated a lot by the family. They can keep these trinkets for a long time which makes it a good investment.
- Remember that you are buying for mom and baby. Get a present that's complete. Another good thing about the Baby Bassinet Gift Basket for baby boy is that it has something for both of them. Of course, the gift should contain items that the baby needs but while he is still sleeping, mom will be grateful for the items that will keep her busy as well.
- Good presents should be well-priced. Typically, a newborn baby bassinet gift set would cost between $45 -$130. If you skimp too much on the cost, chances are the quality of the product will not be that good. You also don't need to break the bank for a special present. For me, the best ones are in the middle price range.
- Excellent customer service. The manufacturer should always be available to answer questions, complaints and special requests because each customer has different needs.
- Several delivery options. Many customers like myself, order online because we need to rush and don't have extra time to shop in malls. A good company would accommodate rush deliveries and is sincere in helping customers.
